Standard Reports

- General Report: Provides the institution(s) attended, dates of study, credential(s) earned and the U.S. equivalency. Suggested for employment and immigration certification.
- Detail Report: In addition to the above information, this also lists individual courses with unit and grade equivalents (where applicable) and an overall grade point average. Suggested for college admission, transfer credit and professional licensure in most fields.
- Course Level Identification: May be included in the Detail Report. The level of each class (lower and upper division, etc.) is provided. Required for junior/community colleges, teacher certification and boards of accountancy.

Specialized Reports

- Physical Therapy, Nursing, Barbering and Cosmetology: For professional licensure in the respective fields.
- Experiential Report: For immigration and employment certification, an assessment of the applicant's combined academic and professional experiences. Applications must be submitted through either an attorney or employer on behalf of the applicant.
- Military Report: For military enlistment only.
- Advisory Report: For the specific needs of a college or university.
